EPIDEMIC IS THE WORD that is used to describe the current flu situation in this area, particularly and throughout California generally.

After noting that the State Department of Public Health had reported that "an influenza epidemic in California is in full swing", we hastened to the dictionary to get a definition of the word "epidemic".

What prompted us to run to the big book was that the health department noted that there were "21 more flu and pneumonia deaths than are normal for this time of year" and thus it was concluded that there was an epidemic in progress.

What interested us was, when does an epidemic become an epidemic?

Is there some magic figure that can be used?

As a case in point, the state health people report that with "21 more flu and pneumonia deaths than are normal", an epidemic is in progress in the state.

The dictionary records "EPIDEMIC...affecting at the same time a large number of persons in a locality--and spreading from person to person as a disease not permanently prevelant there; (2) a temporary prevelance of a disease (3) rapid spread or increase in the prevelance of something."

But actually the definitions really didn't tell us what we wanted to know.

We wondered if there was a standard to go by in classifying epidemics?

Apparently there is.

THERE IS AN EPIDEMIC "threshold" that has been established.

This morbid bit of information was garnered from the report of the state health department.

A check of 11 "index" cities throughout the state revealed that there had been 87 deaths from flu and pneumonia for a week.

The "epidemic threshold" is 65.8 deaths.

San Jose was among the 11 "index" cities. The breakdown showed that there had been seven deaths from flu and six from pneumonia in San Jose for that week.

San Jose gained the dubious honor of having more flu deaths than any other city but both L.A. and San Francisco were ahead in the pneumonia mortality rate.

Obviously all this information won't make either those who have had the flu or those who were missed by the bug feel any better.

Our observation has been that when one gets sick, it really doesn't make much difference to know that many others are in the same predicament.

Misery may like company and all that.

But any sickness is strictly a personal thing.

And one can feel just as lousy with or without an epidemic.

WITH APOLOGIES TO all poets, past or present, we submit the following as an apropos (sort of) report of the situation.

(The author has requested to be known simply as "Anon." She has a good point there.)

LONDON FLU BLUES

"The new year's here...I've got the flu
My eyes are red, my mood is blue
"It's rest for you," the doctor said
And so I trundle off to bed
Then for a way to pass the time
I wrote this silly little rhyme:
It's time to file my income tax
With forms, instructions, schedules too
And pay the piper for the flu
Of working hard the whole year through
My auto registration's due
And I've no time to stand in line

AT CofC INSTALLATION

Citizen award goes to Hyde

Highlighting the annual installation dinner of the Chamber of Commerce last Friday at Zorba's, when outgoing president Al LaPlante turned over the gavel of office to the 1973 president, Ed Fabbri, was the naming of Homer Hyde as the citizen-of-the-year for 1972.

Following tradition, Norm Paul, last year's winner, presented the award to Hyde after first revealing various "clues" as to the identity of the winner. The verbal "clues" were aided by enlarged photos of Hyde at an early age. The selection was made by a committee composed of past winners and had been kept secret until Paul's presentation.

Hyde, who had been installed as a director of the CofC earlier in the evening, is a native of Campbell, a graduate of Stanford and is general manager of the Campbell Water Co.

He served six years on the City Council and was mayor in 1969.

He was named to the Bay Area Regional Water Control Board by Governor Ronald Reagan in 1970 and has been reappointed to another term. He is currently serving as chairman of the board.

Prior to serving on the City Council, Hyde was a long-time member of the Planning Commission and was chairman of that body for several terms.

He is presently on the steering committee of the newly-formed Citizens Advisory Goals Committee and a director of the CofC.

Sharing honors with him at the presentation were his wife, Kathryn, his mother, Mrs. Maude Hyde and his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Israel.

OTHER AWARDS

Prior to the naming of the citizen-of-the-year, a number of other special awards were made, including two on the humorous side, one to Mayor Bill Podgorsek and the other to Fabbri.

Councilman Rusty Hammer made the two awards.

Podgorsek received a scale model of a miniature motel, indicative, Hammer pointed out, of the mayor's persistent

IT'S OFFICIAL NOW

Campbell and Central Fire District finally will have a long-pending automatic mutual aid agreement as a result of the fire commissioners of the district approving such a move, the City Council was informed Monday night.

In a letter to the Council, Central Fire Chief Curtis J. Kirby reported that the commissioners on January 18 had approved the agreement as presented by Campbell.

FINANCED BY TRANSIT DISTRICT

Council approves concept of bus lines in cities to "feed" countywide system

Proposed bus routes within the City of Campbell that would act as "feeders" to the main lines of the projected countywide bus system were approved "in concept" by the City Council on Monday night.

The plan for Campbell follows the same pattern that has been developed by nine other cities in the county and will be presented to the Transit Advisory Commission.

The intra-city bus lines would be integrated with feeder lines in adjacent cities and also nine cities involved have used the same criteria and assumptions for the establishment of both inter-city and intra-city requirements during the next five years.

The proposal was presented by Bill Wren, public works director, who has cooperated with the other cities in developing the program.

Wren explained that the intra-city bus lines would be financed by Santa Clara Transit District tax income. If approved, it would mean that the annual financial reserve that the district officials have indicated would be set aside for an eventual fixed guideway installation would be allocated on a formula basis to the cities for their feeder systems.

Wren said that the formula, based on population, would indicate that Campbell would be allotted $100,000 annually for its bus lines.

Wren added that the proposal is based on the factor that there will be 200 buses in the countywide system following certain established routes throughout the county.

A map showed that the major lines would be on Winchester, Bascom and Hamilton in Campbell and the city lines would connect with them.

The proposal suggests a 14-hour schedule, six-days weekly.

The feeder lines, as worked out by the four cities in this area, Monte Sereno, Los Gatos, Saratoga and Campbell, would integrate the four communities as well as those of DEDICATION OF PARKS---The neighborhood park dedication program, although held at Capri School last Friday, included all seven of the neighborhood parks that had been developed in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District under the joint powers agreement between the school district and the City of Campbell.

The city, from park bond funds voted in 1969, allocated $10,000 to each of the parks at Capri, Dover, Forest Hill, Hazelwood, Rolling Hills, Rosemary and San Tomas. Three of the schools, Capri, Forest Hill and Hazelwood, received an additional $5000 each from HUD while San Tomas was allocated $10,000.

Mayor Bill Podgorsek, Dr. Bob King, president of the school board, and Barney Deasy, representing HUD, took part in the dedicatory program, with Fred (Pete) Peterson, assistant district superintendent, as master-of-ceremonies. In addition, representatives of the other schools in the neighborhood park program were introduced.

In the picture on the right, George Baker, chairman of the Capri park project, is at the microphone flanked by Dr. King, Mayor Podgorsek and Peterson (partially hidden).

The top left photo shows the audience that braved the chilly weather for the brief program, while in the lower photo Mrs. Margaret Magdaleno, of 1421 Westmont Ave., asks that the program be translated in Spanish for the benefit of the Spanish-speaking contingent present. Mrs. Magdaleno agreed to do the interpreting and after the meeting her group exhibited signs asking the school district to ban iceberg lettuce.

MORE THAN 60 CITIZENS INVOLVED

"Task forces" begin study of city goals

More than 60 interested citizens attended the Goals Advisory Committee meeting last Thursday and were assigned to three areas of concern that will be studied by the "task forces" in each group.

Al Blaine was named chairman of the physical and economic development section with Dick Hardy, as vice-chairman.

This group was broken into the sub-sections involving different phases of the city's development.

Serving on this committee, which will explore traffic circulation plans and proposed capital improvement projects, are Father Leonard W. Bose, Emma A. Collins, Bob Cowan, Dick Drew, Pete Edwards, John Faber, Bob Fedde, Chuck Gates, Jim Gilliland, Carl Hanks, Rex Jeffers, M. L. Martin, James C. Malone, Mervyn Nelson, Phil Olavarri, Peggy Pack, Owen A. Peterson, Carl Samuelson, Bob Sneed, Jack R. Trimble, Roger A. Wheeler.

Steve Goodman was named chairman of the intergovernmental phase with Jim D'Avis as vice-chairman.

This group will work as a unit rather than breaking up into sub-sections, it was decided.

Serving on this committee are, Larry D. Larson, Don Hebard, Kay Hofer, Homer Hyde, Glen C. Norstrom, Jr., Bob Renfer, Patricia E. Tunison.

The intergovernmental relations unit will study the effect the various higher levels of government may have on the city as well as relations with local agencies.

Dan Knowles is chairman of the city's responsibility to people-orientated programs with Jeanette Watson as vice-chairman.

This group will study the part the city should play in park and recreational programs and cultural activities as well as programs that could be offered senior citizens and youth.

On this committee are Becky Campos, Anita Campos, Victoria S. Candelaria, Philip Chew, Barbara Clancey, Anita Crist, Norm Glover, Barry Green, Kay Hofer, Tony van Laarhoven, L. A. Larson, Russ Lopez, Floyd M. Little, Lorna MacDonagh, Leo Meyer, Marie Milledge, Aline B. Norstrom, Irma A. Reese, Masel Sheehan, Louise Snider.

At last Thursday's meeting, the various "task forces" and sub-committees scheduled work sessions for the next few weeks.

Steve Campbell, general chairman of the Goals Advisory Committee, announced that the next general meeting of the committee will be on Thursday, February 22, when progress reports of the section groups will be made.

Campbell and Bob Peck, vice-chairman, will meet this week with Councilmen Norm Paul and Dean Chamberlin, to discuss procedures that will lead to the eventual goals report to the City Council in May.

FOR POLICE DEPARTMENT

Campbell submits proposal to dispatch for Los Gatos

Campbell, which established its own communication center only last October, will present a proposal to contract for the police communication dispatching service for the Town of Los Gatos at a figure less than what that city is paying for the service from county communications.

And the City of Campbell could also benefit from the arrangement, fiscally.

The City Council on Monday night, after a step-by-step presentation by Police Chief Don Burr, directed that the proposal be submitted to Los Gatos with only slight modifications from Burr's report.

By letter, Los Gatos Town Manager Russell Cooney, had asked that a dispatching proposal be submitted by Campbell. Cooney indicated that his city faced three alternatives: (1) continue with the county; (2) establish its own communication system and (3) contract with Campbell.

In his detailed report, Chief Burr submitted that three additional employees would be needed but, he also explained, that he had anticipated two additional employees would be necessary in Campbell's present operation.

Chief Burr estimated that the total cost for Los Gatos for the 1973-74 year would be $42,247.60.

The chief also showed that

SCHOOLS CLOSE

Because of the national day of mourning this Thursday, January 25, the Campbell Union (elementary) School District schools will be closed that day.

The meeting of the trustees scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday has been cancelled.

The next board meeting will be Thursday, Feb. 8.

RIBBON-CUTTING, JUNIOR STYLE---With scissors in hand, Carla Turturici, of 1280 Theresa Ave., representing the student body of Capri School, prepares to snip the ribbon signifying the official opening of the neighborhood park at the school.

The mini-park features redwood play equipment and after the ribbon-cutting the kids swarmed through for the first official testing. The neighborhood parks at seven schools in the district have been developed through city funding and that's Mayor Bill Podgorsek holding one end of the ribbon. (Not shown is Dr. Bob King, president of the school board, who was holding the other end of the ribbon). Other pictures on inside pages.

Future planning

It is pretty well established, in areas such as Campbell which have undergone many complex changes in the past decade, that for a Planning Commission to form any sort of guideline for too far in the future is sort of an exercise in futility.

Very definitely a "general plan" specifying zoning and the various elements that go with it, e.g., "traffic circulation," "open space" et al, is essential in the operation of any municipality.

It is highly important that such a document be adopted. In fact, without it, chaos would occur.

The obvious problem, of course, is how far into the future should the planners anticipate.

For example, as we have reported on a number of occasions, even the most astute planner 15 years ago in the City of Campbell could possibly have foreseen some of the major developments that have taken place in this city in the last few years.

We concede, of course, that planning for the future becomes less difficult when an area becomes stabilized and the growth has leveled off.

Thus in Campbell today, with the land use of undeveloped land pretty well defined, the situation is less complex than it was a decade or so ago.

But we still must operate without a crystal ball.

There will be changes made in this community's development within the next few years that none of us now can possibly predict.

So while we emphasize that a general plan must be in force, it also must be conceded that it is also important to remain somewhat flexible.

We submit that the various elements that make up a general plan, "traffic circulation," "open space," "public facilities," etc., should not involve more ideas than have been suggested or even drafting board proposals for the distant future.

We realize, of course, that "distant future" is an indefinite term. To youngsters, next year is a long time away, while in other cases, 20 years is just a mere step.

We realize how difficult it is to establish any sort of a definite period for which any given plan is applicable. It is true, of course, some phases of a general plan never change. But others do.

A case in point would be the "traffic circulation" plan that has been recommended by the Planning Commission and is now under consideration by the City Council.

Should, for example, the City of Campbell develop a traffic pattern that uses the proposed West Valley freeway on the south as its main apex?

Would it not be better, if possible, to develop a traffic circulation plan for this city that can exist with or without this freeway?

It has been said that the West Valley Freeway is 20 years into the future. And that also was said 20 years ago.

We also do not believe that it is necessary to plan so carefully for the conversion of residential streets into so-called "carrier streets" to get traffic through town onto this proposed freeway.

We submit that one of the current traffic problems which face the city stems from the over-use of residential streets for through routes.

We hold that Campbell's traffic circulation element of the general plan should provide adequate through routes, through or around this city.

But we do not subscribe to the theory that it is necessary to divide prime residential areas with designated major thoroughfares.

We do not believe that it is necessary to penalize residential sections of this community in order to get the commuter home that much earlier.

There will be those who will argue that this is a very short-sighted viewpoint and that it will be disastrous if steps are not taken, planningwise, to provide for this traffic eventuality.

That could be.

But we argue that it is just as faulty to be too far-sighted.

We sincerely believe that it is possible to develop an adequate traffic circulation plan for this community with or without a freeway that may or may not be built within our lifetime.

Good planning should also be practical.

APPARENTLY BEING A fireman has not lost its allure.

Interesting and revealing was the tremendous response of applicants for the position of fireman for the Campbell Fire Department.

The personnel staff at the city hall was swamped by the deluge of application forms that were filed in unprecedented numbers.

The filing deadline was Saturday. An unofficial tally showed that 350 applications for the one job had been filed!

A lot of things, we suppose, can be read into that.

But we won't try.

RECENTLY THE OFFICE received a form letter requesting that the news media again give the much needed support and assistance for what was felt to be an important community event.

It was the fifth annual open house for the San Jose Regional Vocational Center.

But we think we received the wrong letter.

The request suggested, "It would be greatly appreciated if your broadcasting station could please announce it as a community service..."

And there was another notation in the letter: "If your station will allow this kind of public service announcement, may they begin two weeks in advance and increase in frequency the week preceding the event."

The vocational center serves six school districts and 29 high schools in this area and is certainly deserving of support by the news media.

Unfortunately, The Campbell Press has no "broadcasting station".

So we were unable to make the spot announcements as requested.

Over the wire, that is.

"CONFUSING" WAS JUST one of the many words used to describe the off-again-on-again four-way stop sign situation at Midway and E. Campbell Ave.

To bring you up to date, if you missed some of the chapters in this vexing vehicular venture, four-way stop signs were installed at that particular intersection as a sort of stop-gap experimental measure to see if such a measure would lessen the through traffic on the residential street.

The four-way signs failed to lessen the traffic.

Instead they added to the annoyance because the caused excessive gunning of motors and screeching of brakes.

So the stop-signs on E. Campbell Ave. were ordered removed after a six-week trial period.

You can just imagine what that did to the regular commuters.

And you won't be far wrong.

When the stop-signs were first installed, many of the habitual users of the street sailed right through.

To "assist" during the transition (?) period, a Campbell police officer was on hand quite often.

Incidentally, the first party who was cited in the process of sort of "gliding through" the stop sign on E. Campbell happened to be one of the top members of the city staff who lives on that side of town.

It took a spell before the motorists finally realized that there was a stop sign there.

But with the help of the police, they did learn.

Then the E. Campbell Ave. stop sign was removed.

A commuter, as you probably realize, drives somewhat automatically.

Once he had learned about the stop sign, no problem. He just stopped and gunned.

But he had to adjust again.

When the stop signs on E. Campbell Ave. were removed, many of the commuters continued for some time to stop and gun.

In the meantime, the drivers on Midway were still stopping and wondering about the whole bit.

You might say some confrontations resulted.

Right in the middle of the intersection.

The same sort of program is being developed by Los Altos, Mountain View, Santa Clara and Sunnyvale.

In another traffic circulation matter, the City Council tabled the amended traffic circulation element of the general plan to allow the city's goals committee to study and report on it.

The Council, also on Monday, awarded the contract for the installation of a median strip on Hamilton and Bascom to C. Aparicio Cement Construction Co. for the new low bid (of three submitted) for $7,459.02. The engineer's estimate for the job was $8000.

the total cost to operate the system, in 1973-74, with Los Gatos involved would be $107,738 while the anticipated cost (with the additional employees requested) without Los Gatos would be $122,042.

In another matter related to the communications center, City Council awarded General Electric the contract for the police radio communications with control center on a low bid of $38,811.50. At the request of Chief Burr, the dual transport recorder was eliminated from the contract. Burr indicated that he preferred to buy this particular item directly.

Dance studio loses

By a unanimous vote, the City Council on Monday upheld the decision of the Planning Commission denying a use permit for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Knowles to conduct a dance studio at their residence at 89 Cherry Lane.

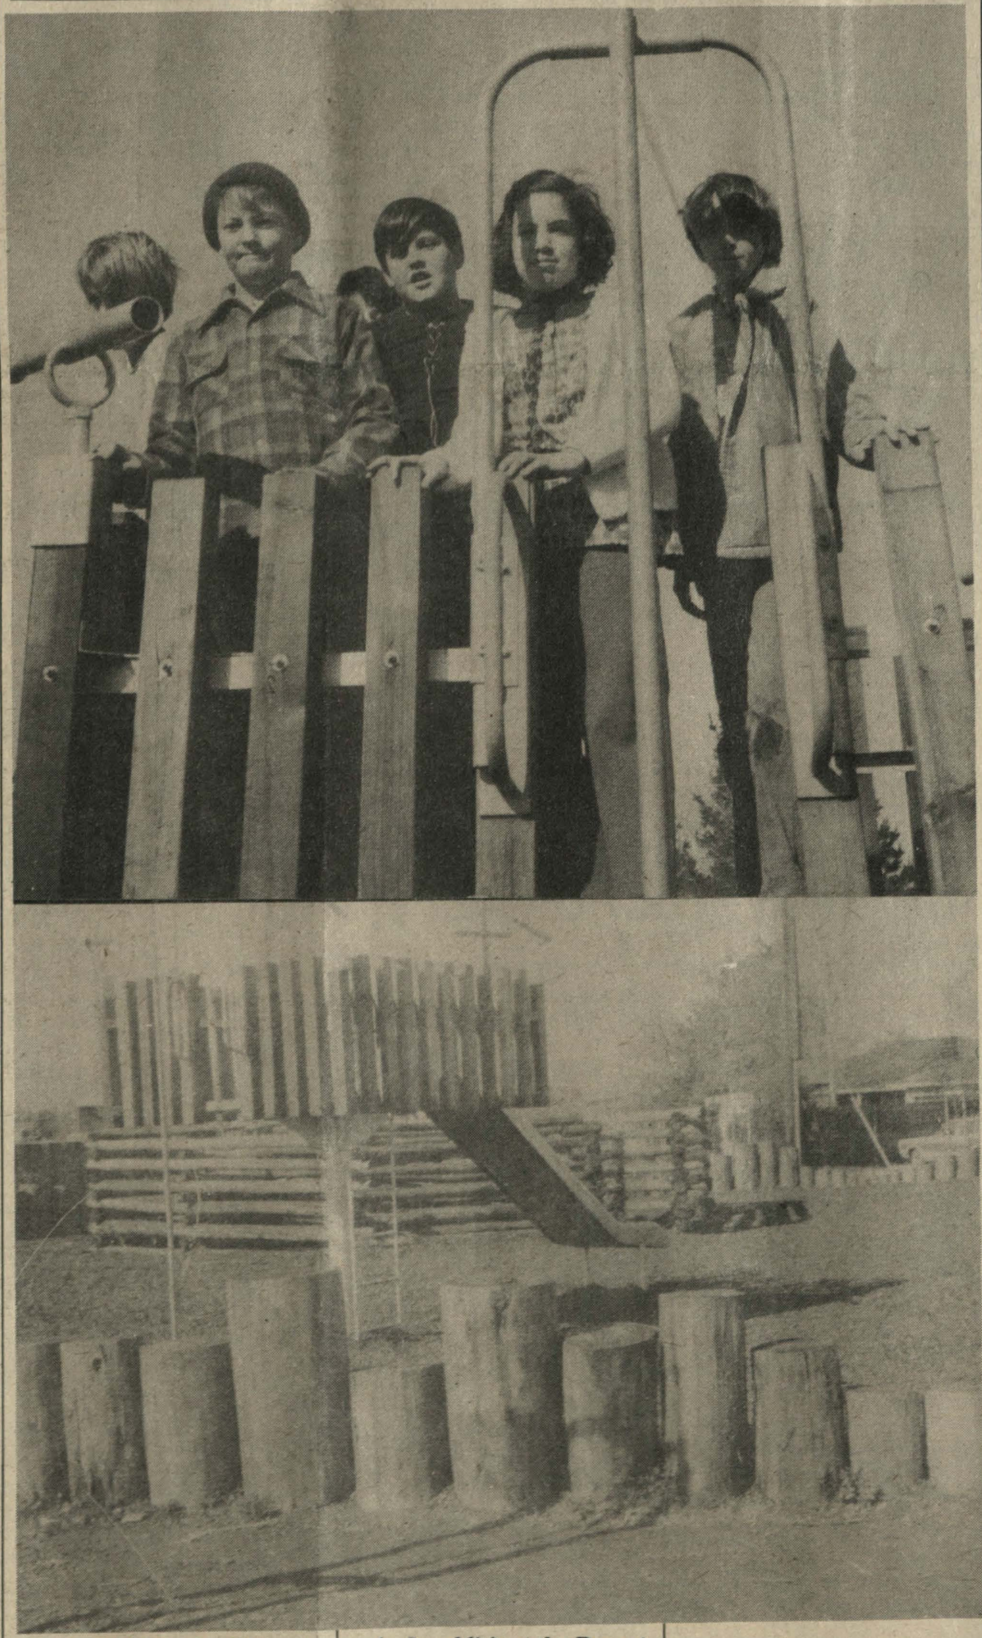
Knowles made an oral presentation of his case and was supported by George Risk, of 65 Cherry Lane, a neighbor. He also submitted a petition from 12 residents in the immediate area who were favorable to the dance studio operation.

Owen Peterson, 138 Cherry Lane; Frank Corral, 137 Cherry Lane, and Ed Chirco, 99 Cherry Lane, spoke against the dance studio and a petition containing signatures of 32 registered voters in the neighborhood opposing the dance studio was filed.

In making the motion to uphold the Commission, Vice-Mayor Dean Chamberlin pointed out that it was not an educational institution which could be allowed in a residential zone and he agreed that there could be a degree of nuisance in the operation. Councilman Ralph Doetsch seconded the motion and it was carried unanimously.

In an oral report to the Council, George Hallyburton, of 134 Bland Ave., complained of vandalism caused by high school students in his area and asked that the city check out the area.

Councilman Rusty Hammer suggested that the matter be referred to the Youth Advisory Commission and, in addition, the Council directed Bill Wren, public works director, to report on the situation at the next meeting.



KIDS ENJOY IT---After the dedication of the neighborhood park at Capri School last Friday, a group of students of the school swarmed over the equipment before heading back to class.

The park, one of seven in the district, was developed under a joint city-school district agreement, with the city allocating $10,000 to each park. In addition, the Department of Housing and Development (HUD) added $5000 each for three of the parks and $10,000 for the park at San Tomas School.

In the top photo, a group of youngsters pose at the top of one of the slides in the playground and in the lower picture some of the other equipment is shown.

Kindergarten registration begins on Thursday, Feb. 1

Campbell Union School District kindergarten registration for the 1973-74 school year begins on Thursday, February 1, at 9:00 a.m.

District officials urge parents to make every effort to register their children on this date as crowded conditions exist at some schools and late registrants might have to be bused to another school within the district.

The district staff also requests: "Please register at your neighborhood school and bring valid proof of your child's birthdate. If students were born on or before December 2, 1968, they will be eligible to enter kindergarten in September of this year. Further information can be obtained at your neighborhood school.

STATE DEPUTY --- Herman Schierenberg, Deputy State Fire Marshal (left), presents Fire Chief Gene Borden with the official badge of rank of Deputy State Fire Marshal. The appointment was made by State Fire Marshal Al Hole.

This appointment invests the Campbell fire chief with the authority to enforce state regulations relative to fire safety within the City of Campbell. These duties are performed simultaneously with the enforcement of local codes and regulations.

Wiring ups cost of wing

Because the up-dated inter-office communications system in the engineering wing at the city hall requires more electrical connections than had been anticipated, the City Council on Monday night approved the first change-order for the completion of the wing under the contract issued to Trimble Construction Co.

The Council approved the change-order totalling $4300 of which $3,047.98 was for electrical work.

In another construction matter, the Council directed City Manager Bob Stephens to check with the architect, Bill Hedley, and the county librarian as to the status of carpets and drapes in the $632,000 library construction budget.

Stephens explained that the estimated cost of those items was missing from the budget that had been presented by the architect.

HOLD-UP NETS $70

A barefoot man held up the Jack-In-The-Box restaurant early Sunday morning escaping with some $70 in cash, according to police reports.

The man, who brandished a handgun during the robbery, was described as six feet tall, weighing about 200 pounds with a full black beard and wearing a dirty, torn green fatigue jacket.

WHAT'S THAT AGAIN?

Like any patrolmen, Campbell police spend a good deal of time filling out reports on complaints and crimes. At least one local officer, however, livened up his duty last week.

As part of a dog bite complaint (the victim was not seriously injured) he filled out the entire form including the line reading, "What did the suspect say?"

His response: "Grrr."

DRAMA

"Come Blow Your Horn" is the title of Neil Simon's hit Broadway play that will be performed by the Campbell High Drama Commission on February 1 and 2 in the Campbell High auditorium.

This play is one of Mr. Simon's 12 successive hits (along with the Odd Couple, Barefoot in the Park, and Plaza Suite) and is an entertaining comedy that ran for two full seasons on Broadway along with a very long road run.

"Come Blow Your Horn" follows young and timid Buddy Baker as he leaves home to live with his older (playboy) brother Allan and gain independence. Neither of his parants approve and a very funny scramble occurs in which Buddy, Allan, their parents, and various goodlooking females take part. Watch for a personality change in the end!

Pat Powers stars as Buddy with Tom Gabbard as brother Allan. Julie Dorrell and Lynn Eldredge have the parts of their two respective females, Pete Fair plays Buddy's father and Joan Evans is great as the boys' worried mother. Sally Merriel plays Aunt Gussy (Aunt Gussy?).

"We've worked very hard on it," said Jan Menkemeller, stage manager. "I think that it will really be a success!"

EDITORIAL

"Oh, wow, man, Scafe first period! What a bummer!" "Hey, they gave me Sharp for English! Yuck!" "Oh no! Not Mr. Lynch again!"

These are familiar words on the Campbell campus that can be heard after programs have been assigned for the year. It's usually obvious from the groans and grim faces in the halls that most students are not satisfied with the way programs are now being assigned.

Obviously, most of the enjoyment and learning that a student gets from a course comes from the teacher, and that individual's ability to teach. When a teacher's teaching methods don't coincide with a student's learning ability, the time spent in teaching is wasted.

Almost all students have favorite teachers -- teachers that they've learned a lot from or maybe that they've just enjoyed. So wouldn't it make sense to allow students to choose the teachers that they feel they'd like to have?

Camden High was the first school in our district to initiate a program in which the students were allowed to choose their teachers. The program began in March, when student's class choices were fed into a computer and a master plan was devised which fit each teacher, subject and period together. When this list was compiled, each student was given a copy to study and could then work out his own schedule and choice of teachers. A sign-up session was held in the last week of August, with student aides assisting administrators.

As confusing as this system sounds, it has a lot of advantages over the one now at Campbell with teachers being selected randomly by a computer. It would eliminate a lot of confusion at the beginning of the year by greatly cutting down the amount of program changes (Campbell had between 300 and 400 this year, while Camden had only 50) and hardly any problems with students who had moved since the list would be compiled a couple of weeks before school begins. And on the lighter side, it would be a whole lot easier to get into classes with your friends.

Each of the administrators that I've talked to about this idea seems to approve. So why not, Campbell? 85% of the students at Camden said they'd gotten almost exactly what they'd wanted this year, and less than 5% were dissatisfied. How can you argue with that?

ONE DOWN ...

Well, it's coming time for the semester break. That means half the year is gone already and the second half is ready to begin. It's the general consensus around here that it seems the year started only last week, but you don't hear people complaining about how fast the year goes by.

WESTMONT OPEN MOUTH

In the January 10 edition of this paper a question was asked as to the character and journalistic habit of this reporter. The question showed no taste and little imagination, thus it fit quite well into the rest of the column.

At this time I would like to shed some light on the current rumor that Paul and Ms. Maureen (the villains in their column) are illiterates. It's true! But then their column isn't all bad. It's a well-known fact that their column has been used as a cure for insomnia the world over, although I'm a firm believer in the old saying the cure is often worse than the disease.

4-H CLUB MEMBERS

CAMPBELL 4-H

by Dena Stippich

The Campbell 4-H Club held their monthly meeting on January 11, at Coventry School.

The junior leaders presented a demonstration entitled, "All you wanted to know about a demonstration, but were afraid to ask."

Most of the leaders presented something they had learned at their meetings, then they were judged.

Our club leader, Mrs. Smith, asked us if we would like to participate in "Share the Fun" on February 24. The club chose to participate in it.

The adult advisors will be Mrs. Landeske and Mrs. Yamaphita. Committee reports were given by Colleen Clancey, Nora Smith, Cindy Peterson and Peggy Clancey on the potluck, the Christmas Party, the community service and 4-H week.

The song leaders, Colleen Clancey and Sharon Cassingham, led us in "Row, Row, Row Your Boat," then "Happy Birthday" to a club member.

Our leader introduced a discussion on hosting a square dance for another club.

The next meeting on February 8 will be Father's Night. At the meeting there will be a cake auction.

College completes purchase of site

The Board of Trustees for the West Valley Joint Community College District Thursday night officially approved purchase of the last two parcels of land for the district's long planned Mission Campus in Santa Clara.

The parcels, totalling more than 45 acres were purchased from the American Savings and Loan Association for $1.08 million.

Full cost of the complete 164 acre site fronting the Bayshore Freeway is $3,422,578 according to Dr. Leroy Lowery, assistant superintendent of finance.

Acquisition of the acreage immediately followed consummation of an earlier agreement with the City of Santa Clara to purchase a 19 acre parcel at the site. The City had been holding the parcel for two years until West Valley was able to make the purchase.

West Valley is now free to begin preparing for site development and building design projects at the new site in the 1973-74 school year.

In other actions the board of trustees:

AUTHORIZED an application by the dean of occupational education to the Kellogg Foundation for funds to set up a planning body of hospitals and college staff who would coordinate the educational and training needs of area hospitals.

CREATED a new classified position to assist the dean of occupational education in research and liaison with technical advisory committee members.

APPROVED landscaping project plans for the Humanities and Fine Arts Building scheduled to open on the Saratoga Campus in the fall. The plans were developed in cooperation with the college's biological science instructors who intend to use the planted areas as learning tools for their classes.

APPROVED seven noncredit classes including "Social Psychology of Women," "Teacher Aide Workshop," and "Identification and Use of Native Plants."

APPOINTED board member Rev. Ben Gould as representative to the City of Campbell's Citizen Advisory Goals Steering Committee.

PROMOTED Ed Sherry to the new position of Supervisor of Ancillary Services.

A CALL FOR HELP---Most women first make contact with the La Leche League when they call the organization's offices for help with an immediate problem. Pictured above, Claire Mc Carthy, 4122 Sadie Court. With her are Adam, three months, and Cathy, three. Claire is one of many Campbell women working with the LLL.

Mothers share LL experiences

by Pat Safford

One of the active, and largely unsung, community service organizations in the Campbell area is the South San Jose Branch of La Leche League International, Inc.

Serving new and expectant mothers with information and encouragement in breastfeeding their infants, the LLL is now in its ninth year serving area residents.

Monthly meetings, an information service and a lending library of publications and pamphlets dealing with breastfeeding are part of the local group's projects but perhaps the most widely used service is that of telephone counseling.

AN ENCOURAGING WORD

New mothers, encountering a problem with breastfeeding, can and do phone the LLL number to get advice, information or reassurance. According to the south branch leader, Jody Wilsbacher, for every woman who attends the league's lectures, there are scores who call the LLL when they need help.

"It's all right to say 'We're having our monthly meeting in two weeks' to a new mother that calls, but often what she needs is help with an immediate or urgent problem."

The group's name, pronounced (la lay-chay) is taken from a Spanish title of the Mother of Christ: "Nuestra Senora de la Leche y Buen Parto–Our Lady of Happy Delivery and Plentiful Milk." Literally, it is interpreted as, "the milk."

SMALL BEGINNING

The non-profit, non-sectarian organization had its beginning at a family picnic in Franklin Park, Illinois back in 1956. As the women gathered at the picnic for a chat two of the mothers began to breastfeed their infants. Many of the other women there had tried breastfeeding their babies, but had failed.

The two young mothers were asked many questions that day as the group discussed their problems. The two women were sympathetic and acknowledged that, they too, were troubled with many problems.

They had also been unsuccessful in breastfeeding their first babies and felt, if they had been able to get advice and encouragement from more experienced mothers at the time, it would have been far easier for them.

Out of those conversations grew the idea for a group that would offer help to nursing mothers.

SHARED EXPERIENCE

A series of four meetings is held three times yearly. At these meetings expectant and new mothers attend for information about the advantages of breastfeeding, overcoming difficulties, the family and the breastfed baby, and nutrition and weaning. New mothers are encouraged to bring their infants with them to meetings.

According to the La Leche League, "A woman's ability to nurse her baby is helped by associating with other mothers who are doing it; sharing their experiences, discussing approaches, reading and understanding what it's all about."

CAMPBELL MOTHERS

Campbell has always been well represented in the South San Jose branch, according to Mrs. Wilsbacher (the last meeting series in 1972 was held in Campbell).

Currently Karen Nagy is serving as treasurer, Nora Cooper is handling publicity and Terry Gilmore until very recently served as mailing chairman (she's now busy with a new baby).

Both membership and leadership changes often in LLL since local activities are geared to temporary needs. The original San Jose group, begun by Dolly Lundberg in 1964, grew rapidly over the years into the six branches presently operating.

Dolly's place was taken by Donna Wiley, when she moved from the area. Other area leaders responsible for LLL's development were: Sue Wilson, Diane Jensen, Pat Sherrard, Lorraine Cardoza, Kathie Pennington, Mary Cox, Kathie Dolce and Shirley Keller. Pat later served as the South Carolina coordinator for LLL and Mary is now New Group's Chairman for Northern California.

The latest meeting series began in January and will run through April. Those interested in attending or in learning more about the program may call 264-9597 or 263-6686.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' Club of the First United Methodist Church of Campbell will hold their monthly meeting on Thursday, January 25, at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside Room of the Fellowship Hall.

The informal meeting will include instruction on the making of cookie dough plaques. All interested persons are requested to bring a piece of wood, either sanded or stained.

Those with crafts are asked to bring them to show, chairman Gail Damer said.

DANCE AT MEETING

A dance band, cocktails, and door prizes will be part of the Moffett Field Employee Credit Union meeting on Friday, January 26, 8 p.m. at Naper Hall in San Jose.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Bethel 174 of Campbell is holding a "Dip Dinner" on Saturday, January 27, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Campbell Grange Hall.

Funds from this philanthropic project will be used to aid the group's adopted Indian child, Klista.

The Bennett's gathered with other invited guests in the capital's Pension Building for the Inaugural Ball, the climax of the week-long festivities in honor of the reelection of President Richard Nixon.

For the ball Mrs. Bennett wore a black floor-length crepe gown while her daughter was attired in a creme and blue chiffon ball gown.

The local couple returned here by plane Sunday evening.

Our Town

by JoAnn Zoller

The Chamber of Commerce annual installation dinner at Zorba's last Friday night was attended in force by localites. Long dresses were definitely "in" force, but Carol King, wife of Trustee Dr. Bob, wore a very attractive two piece brocade pants outfit....Radiantly greeting guests was Mrs. Ed (Mary) Fabbri, whose husband was to accept the gavel later in the evening. Mary wore a filmy orange chiffon over darker orange...Mrs. Lowell (Louise) Grattan looked so pretty in a pale lavender dress that complimented her blond hair....Mrs. Courtland (Jeanette) Watson, whose pleasure it was to pass out special awards, was pinning boutonnieres and corsages on incoming CofC directors. Jeanette wore a black and white dress accented with vertical ruffles...One couldn't help but notice red haired Mrs. John Bliss's unusual multicolored necklace which matched her skirt...Mrs. Al (Barbara) LaPlante, wife of the outgoing president, chose a red dress with a V-necked ruffle for this occasion.

Incidentally Barbara was seen blushing when M.C. Fred LaCosse announced from the podium that she needed some coffee. (The waiter had apparently failed to serve some of the head table)...Perhaps one of the most glowing faces was that of Kathryn Hyde, wife of the "Man of the year", Homer Hyde, who had successfully kept the secret that he was "it".

Mrs. Ralph Hyde, Homer's mother, and his daughter Kathy and her husband, Skip Israel were on hand to share the surprise...Everyone missed Connie Clark, the CofC secretary who's been out ill for six weeks...Mrs. Len (Glee) Edholm greeted guests with her CofC manager-husband...It was nice to have the Mehrkens' there...also LaCosse's wife, Maryetta...and visiting councilmen from Los Gatos...

The Lou DaSilva's came late, but we caught a glimpse of her dark wine velvet dress ...185 were there all told and lots of conversation was going

MORE HAPPENINGS IN OUR TOWN

Maggie and Pat Sullivan rolled out the welcome mat in royal style Saturday afternoon for Maggie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Farnan of Chicago. Greeting the Farnans at the San Jose airport were Maggie and Pat, their ten children, Maggie's brother Moe Farnan of Oakland, his wife Eileen and their five children. The trip was a gift from the Farnan's daughter Delores and son-in-law John Ryan of Chicago, who gave them the plane tickets on their 40th wedding anniversary in September...

Also entertaining guests recently were Al and Jacqueline Beauchemin who enjoyed a six week visit from Jacqueline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Yves Lefoll of Ploumilliau, France...

Party time begins at 7:30 p.m. this Saturday for members of the Campbell Moose Lodge when they will hold their second crab feed of the season. This delicious event will be followed by dancing to the western sounds of the Cooper Brothers and Gals band...

Members of the Youth Club of Immanuel Presbyterian Church are gathering together all their warm winter woolens and getting ready for the group's annual snow trip. They plan to leave for Leland Meadows this Friday night for a weekend of sun, snow and fun. Sunday morning the club will sing at the worship service of the Soulsbyville Methodist Church...

Mrs. Dorothy B. Boswell, Deputy Grand Guardian and Vice Grand Guardian of the State of California, makes her official visit to the Job's Daughters Bethel 298 this evening at 7 p.m...

A potluck dinner will be held by the American Legion Post 158 and the American Legion Auxiliary this Friday at the Post Hall on Dell Ave. While this event is not open to the public Mrs. Emily Berry, publicity chairman for the Auxiliary, extends a welcome to members of the community to attend the whist parties sponsored by the group the first Monday of each month 1 p.m. at the Post Hall. A dessert is served and lots of prizes are given.

Here's an interesting ad that ran recently in a local church newsletter.

"Promises" is entertaining

by Steve Rockwell

In examining "Promises, Promises," the current offering by the Centerplayers at Old Town, one should consider the local status of community amateur theater. If theater is merely to entertain, then this production is highly successful; however, if theater is to be an art form, then this production is a failure.

The audience will leave the theater thoroughly laughing and in high spirits, thinking that he has seen 35 people have a good time on the stage. If the viewer is expecting good theater, then he will be disappointed.

"Promises, Promises" is a musical well written by Neil Simon with music by Burt Bacharach all based on the movie, "The Apartment," an academy award winner of some years back. The plot revolves around a lonely bachelor who lends his apartment key to those executives who could further his career.

Wally Gilbert, veteran of Prospect High School productions, is cast in the lead role of C. C. Baxter. He sings, dances, and acts as well as anyone could want. His major problem with the character is his physical appearance. The audience spends the first act adjusting to a very youngish looking kid in the role of a thirty year-old bachelor. However, he still has charm and talent and wins much approval in his curtain call.

Marsha Mercant in the role of "Baxter's girl of his dreams" is a total disappointment. She is so low-key that she recites her lines with little warmth and most of all with no sense of humor. However, she does sing well although without meaning.

It is John Powers, who is absolutely right in his role of Sheldrake, that gives this production some depth. He is totally convincing and gives the character the realism that it needs. Tom Ribordy and John Gunn are also noteworthy only because they offer a needed maturity to the vehicle. Ribordy needs to learn some vocal control when he sings with other players. He overshadows the ensemble singing to a state of distraction.

The choreography by Marc Pluff is zestful and the duo piano accompaniment by Scott Stewart is adequate in the demanding Bacharach score.

It is an entertaining evening for the average theater goer, and what else could one want in these times of strife and struggle?

The production will play through February 3 on weekends; for ticket information, call 354-8415.

Speaking OF taxes

Readers' comments and questions are welcomed. Those of general interest will be covered in "Speaking of Taxes." Address your letters to: Speaking of Taxes, P. O. Box 158, Campbell, Ca. 95008

by Pat Safford, vice-president of the Northern California Assn. of Enrolled Agents

Q–WHAT HAPPENED TO ALL THOSE NEW TAX DEDUCTIONS THAT WERE PRESENTED TO CONGRESS LAST YEAR?

A–Some were passed. Some were not. Much confusion is caused by a basic misunderstanding about how our tax laws are changed.

Until a bill has been passed by both the house and senate and has been signed by the President, it is not the new law of the land.

Each year dozens of bills are introduced but most are never ratified.

Major reforms in the area of child care expense, political contributions, etc., WERE instituted last year.

However, many of those "new tax deductions" you heard about last summer and fall never even got out of committee and onto the senate-house floor for a vote.

Q–I'VE BEEN TOLD THAT I CAN TAKE A DEDUCTION FOR DAMAGE DONE TO MY GARDEN BY OUR RECORD-BREAKING FREEZE LAST YEAR. IS THIS TRUE?

A–It is possible...but only under certain circumstances. While our record-low temperatures would qualify under the "sudden, unexpected " definition of what constitutes a casualty, you can only take a loss due to ornamental trees and shrubs when you can establish that, "there has been a decrease in the TOTAL VALUE of the real estate."

NEW POLITICAL CONTRIBUTION

Your 1040 federal tax form has a brand new tax credit this year. That of a credit for cash contributions made to candidates (or committees representing candidates) for political office.

The new provisions allow you to take contributions as either a credit against your tax liability or as an itemized deduction, with certain limitations.

CREDIT: You may take a credit of up to $12.50 ($25 if married. filing jointly) maximum for 50% of your cash contributions made. If you are single and gave $40 to your candidate for public office, you would be entitled to take a credit of $12.50. If you gave $10, you would be entitled to a credit of $5.

If you itemize deductions you may include your political contributions up to a maxmum of $50 single ($100 married, filing jointly) INSTEAD of the credit.

While you should work out actual savings by taking either the credit or deduction, in most cases taxpayers will effect the greatest tax savings by taking the credit.

No credit or deduction will be allowed for contributions to groups advocating passage of any of our state propositions, for instance. To be deductible these contributions MUST be to, or for, individual candidates.

(According to a member of the Treasury Department staff in Washington, D.C., this new provision was introduced with the idea of helping boost small contributions to the Democratic Party during last year's national elections. Hence, the strict limitations on the amount of credit-deduction.

NEXT: That new provision for allocating one of your tax dollars to the political party of your choice.

Q–I'VE NOTICED THE NEW FEDERAL FORM ASKS FOR THE SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER OF THE TAX PREPARER. WHY IS THIS?

A–According to Patt, "It gives the IRS a way to use our computer equipment to locate returns done by a particular preparer. When a preparer is found to have submitted a fraudulent return, according to Patt, the IRS can more easily locate other returns submitted by that preparer for examination.

PROGRESS EDITION

"Coaches aren't under fire," high school P.E. head says

This is the fourth in a series of articles dealing with the sports program for students in Campbell. Today, the P.E. supervisor for the high school district outlines the scope of their program.

The purpose of the Campbell Union High School District's sports program is to "provide activities for students with accelerated abilities," according to Haskell Bowen, physical education supervisor for the district.

"Participation in the program," according to Bowen, "promotes self-value and can give real meaning to life. For many," he said, "it provides scholarships so they can further their education."

AREN'T UNDER FIRE

"In our district," Bowen said, "coaches aren't under fire to produce a winning team. We emphasize good attitudes that can provide a carry-over effect in terms of self-discipline. Learning to put the team before yourself is one of these disciplines," he said. "We teach kids to do their best. If they win, OK. If not, they can still appreciate the qualities of the other team."

In numbers of students, there are now about 4,000 students (boys) participating in the school sports program. Another 3,000 (girls and boys) are taking part in the intramural sports program. Some of these are also in the first group. The district total enrollment numbers over 14,000 students.

Intra-mural sports was introduced at local high schools recently, according to Bowen and there are now seven sports being offered in this program. They are basketball, volleyball, horseshoes, bowling, ping pong, badminton and softball.

The intra-mural program is designed for any student in the district, in contrast to the athletic program which accepts the most talented players. Some teams are also coeducational.

The district is presently building a three-sided handball court and plans to add this very active sport to their program in the near future.

P. E. VALUABLE FOR EVERYONE

At present students taking part in intra-scholastic sports (such as those on the football and basketball teams) are exempt from the regular P.E. program. Bowen feels this may be a mistake. "We're considering whether people in the athletic sports program should be required to participate in physical education as well. The reason for this," he says, "is for the carry-over values. I feel daily P.E. is worthwhile.

"After college," Bowen said, "will they be able to play tennis, golf, volleyball or know how to bowl, in addition to their sports specialty?

"Students should be skilled in other sports as well," he added.

STUDENT INJURIES

"We do have injuries," Bowen said. Before athletes are allowed to participate, he said, they must pass a screening test (physical exam.).

In addition, coaches are trained in first aid. The district also has a medical consultant, Dr. Robert Wade, who advises the district regarding student health guidelines.

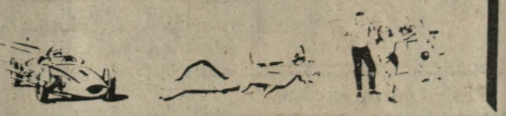
When a student is injured, Bowen continued, he is not allowed to participate until he has been released by a physician.

SYMPOSIUM ATTENDANCE

While the overall attendance at the medical society's "Sport-Medicine Symposium" has been termed very low by Dr. Martin Trieb, chairman of the local Medical Aspects of Sport Committee, Bowen feels the high school district has a "pretty high showing." He estimates about 50% of those invited attend the meeting.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll



The Courtyard II "Prosecutors" from Hayward won the East Bay Divisional Championship of the Northern California Darts Association in a tightly contested match Sunday in San Jose's Banbury Clock. The luck of the draw pitted the Prosecutors against Scarlet LaRue II of Los Gatos in the first match of the three way round robin.

There were six games in each set of matches with each team playing the other twice. LaRue led off by taking the 1001 team game when Kip Fanjoy threw an 80-out. The Prosecutors countered with Tony Chaverria taking the next match from Jim Macredes. The next two games went one to each team but the LaRue picked up the last two to take the lead 4-2.

The second set of matches had the LaRue against Pleasant Hill's Gay 90's III. This ended in a 3-3 tie in spite of Phil Alber's beautiful 11-dart game with an 80-out.

It was now the Gay 90's turn against the Courtyard. The Prosecutors took the first three games but Larry Stockstill of the Gay 90's had a chance at a 9-dart game (102-away, 85, 88). He missed his double on the ninth dart but made it a couple of darts later. The score on this match was 4-2 for the Prosecutors with John Panos making the other win for the Gay 90's.

HALFWAY

At the halfway point the LaRue had a slight lead, having won seven games to the Prosecutors, six and the 90's, five. This time the score was the opposite of the first round match, 4-2 for the Prosecutors over LaRue or a 6-6 split for the twelve games. This moved the Courtyard ahead of the LaRue by one game for the title with both teams having to play the 90's.

As in the first half LaRue and Gay 90's had a 3-3 split and as in the case between the Courtyard and LaRue a 6-6 split for the afternoon. This left things at a very interesting spot. If the 90's beat the Courtyard 4-2 there would then be a three-way tie. The Courtyard needed three games to take the title. This they did three straight with a final score: Courtyard, 13; LaRue, 12 and the Gay 90's, 8.

WEST BAY DIVISIONALS

The Courtyard will meet the winners of the West Bay Divisional Sunday afternoon at a location to be announced. The West Bay games took place at Harold's Club in Redwood City. It also was a fight to the final game with only a few points separating the four teams. San Francisco's Abbey Tavern II emerged victorious. The other teams in the West Bay match were Scarlet LaRue II of Los Gatos, Primrose Lanes II of Burlingame and the Ben Jonson from San Francisco.

Play-offs for Pony League slated for Rincon Park field

Campbell-Moreland Pony League will host the regional Pony-League play-off for 1973 and the Divisional play-offs for 1974, according to Chuck Cannady, president of the local league.

The "regional" is the step just before the divisional and the divisional is the last stop before the World Series which is held in Pennsylvania.

Selection of the Campbell site is a feather in the local league's cap, but is not surprising in view of local baseball enthusiasm.

Cannady reports that some storm damage occurred at the field in the past week, as the outfield fence was pummeled by recent winds.

In addition to repair work needed on the fence, Cannady feels that a campaign to get lights for the field should get underway as quickly as possible, so that late games which might be scheduled during the play-offs won't be in danger of being cancelled due to darkness.

The pony league season is getting underway with final sign-ups scheduled for Saturday, January 27, at the field from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the field in Rincon Park. Players 13 and 14 should bring a copy of their birth certificate and a parent with them. Registration fee is $15.

Mementos of past teams are being sought for display at the clubhouse, including pictures of former pony league teams. Anyone who has material to contribute should contact Cannady, at 377-1667.

Officials hope to be able to acquire pictures of all teams since the formation of the league.

AROUND TOWN....Lots of folks recovering from the flu.. Phil Plansky of Talk About Carpets at Kirkwood Plaza said it's on its second go-round in his family....Bill Paul of Wheel Away feeling better.. there's a rumor that the whole influenza epidemic was started by Campbell Plaza Liquor's Frank Velo....

Brenda Fenolio of Dolphin Pet still riding on Cloud Nine after a big win with her Springer Spaniel puppy at a match in Vallejo....Merchants are always searching around for proper lighting in their stores....maybe Chuck Cannady who recently opened a second Fly Trap store on Union Avenue has some light bulbs to give away....he says his store is TOO bright....

DRIVING AROUND....noticed the nice new sign on the Outrigger property....if the skies continue to be cloudy, owners Orley Paxton and Bill Jones may have to consider pontoons for their trailer.... speaking of signs, Campbell Center's new one is an eye-catcher, proving that signs don't have to be a mile high to be noticeable---something the environmentalists have been saying for quite a spell...

Another attraction is the remodeling job that Sunset Pools did to a former donut house on Winchester....

Have you seen the modular furniture which is being made right over on Salmar by Philo Systems?

Does anyone know what happened to the Dairy Queen? ....Wonder if Campbell Marine RENTS boats - we may need 'em.

Benson's Cleaners sure has some attractive window displays....the Texaco station at Hamilton and Winchester has a new owner--Jerry McKee--and a new name - naturally, "Jerry's"....

Margo's Glamour Boutique also has a new owner, Mrs. Oleta Dickinson, a Campbell resident who previously operated a shop in Monta Vista.

West Valley Sports

by Dick Sparrer

It was just a matter of having to come-from-behind once too often for the West Valley College basketballers last weekend. The Vikings saw their winning string snapped at 10 straight by an upstart Skyline five 80-77 on the San Bruno floor.

The loss drops WV's Camino Norte Conference record to 3-1 this week when they must face loop pacesetter Marin. The game is set for the Campbell high gym at 8 p.m. and the Vikes must win if they hope to spend the second half of the CNC season anywhere but in the back seat.

Marin is ranked second in the state among large junior colleges and the Vikings were sitting right behind them as the third ranked team.

Rick Hile (Mitty), Paul Boskovich (St. Francis) and Enver Apaydin (Blackford) all scored in double numbers for West Valley and eight players hit the scoring column.

The Vikings came back to tie the count three times and at one point went up by two. But they couldn't hold on and Skyline, who had lost to WVC 105-81 in the Cabrillo Classic, pulled out the win.

The Vikings, noted for their fine performances at the free throw line, hit only 17 of 26 from the stripe for 65 per cent which could have proven their undoing.

A night earlier an upset minded bunch from Ohlone tried to end the Viking's streak at nine but didn't have enough firepower.

The Vikes trailed by as much as 15 in the second half after being down 39-31 at the halftime buzzer. But the Vikes fought back to get the lead and the victory in the final stages of the ballgame.

Hile led all Viking scorers in the non-league victory with 18 but four of his teammates joined him in double figures. Batinich tallied 15, Boskovich hit 13, Walsh netted 11 and Apaydin swished 10.

The two decisions pushed WVC's record to 16-3 overall on the season and gives them 12 victories in their last 14 ballgames.

QUITO SIGN-UPS

Final days for sign-ups with the Quito Little League are this Friday, January 26, from 7 to 9 p.m., and Saturday, January 27, from 12 noon to 3 p.m. at Forest Hill School. A parent or guardian must accompany each child and a birth certificate is required.

CROSS COUNTRY --- West Valley College recently honored its cross country team by naming team captain Mike Schaecher most valuable runner. Pictured with Schaecher is cross country coach, Bill Campbell.

Girl Scouts

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

The combined Brownies and Junior Girl Scout troops from Capri School provided a memorable and enjoyable Christmas for two wards of patients at Agnews State Hospital. Under the direction of Mrs. Robert Boomsliter, a select choir sang the Fred Waring version of "'Twas the Night Before Christmas."

The entire group joined the choir to sing traditional Christmas music. The scouts brought and trimmed a Christmas tree for the recreation room, as well as serving cookies and punch which they made for the party.

Troops participating in the Agnews Christmas party service project were Brownie troop 483, Mrs. Earl Hansen, leader; Junior troop 420, led by Mrs. Leland Lopes and Mrs. Melvern Swenson, and troop 371, Mrs. Donald Wedel and Mrs. Robert Webb, leaders.

During the Christmas season the combined choir visited Westgate Villa and Lark Manor convalescent homes, for the singing of their specially prepared Christmas music, for three different groups of residents and patients.

Under the direction of Mrs. Richard McCullough, neighborhood chairman, the entire Neighborhood 15 Girl Scout troops participated in Christmas singing at Westgate mall. Mrs. Boomsliter accompanied the entire group on the piano which was provided by the Westgate management.

Closed circuit television at Good Samaritan Hospital was on the docket for the choir at Christmastime. Choir members include - Brownies; troop 483, Jill Boomsliter, Lynne Helms, Connie Sanders, Tina Chase, Janay Miller, Karlene Smith, Stephanie Taunton; Service projects like these are fun things for Girl Scouts, and these junior girls will earn credit towards their Sign of the Arrow and Sign of the Star awards, the highest honor the junior Girl Scout can receive.

The girls are now working on projects to submit to the up-coming Arts Festival Day, at the end of this month.

Tickets for the First Annual Oakland Indoor Invitational Track Meet are now available at several local outlets, according to Gerald Harrington, coach of the Campbell Integra track team.

Don's Dispatch

WE BELIEVE IT AT DEL MAR

All right, Scott Russell and the Del Mar Dons! You played an outstanding game against the Campbell Bucs!

The Dons beat the Bucs during an afternoon game in the Campbell gym. The final score of the varsity game was 79-53!! Scott "the Great" Russell made a total of 43 points, breaking the old Del Mar record of 41 points set by Bruce Posey.

The frosh-soph game was not quite as bad for Campbell, but they lost 34-32.

Both Del Mar teams are undefeated in league games. Keep it up, guys!!!

DID YOU KNOW...

...Anita rushes home to Steve and Joe every day after school.

...Los Gatos High, your SKY IS FALLING.

...You should cruise with caution and watch out for Cadillacs.

...Becky C. flies at night.

...There WAS a February 27 in 1955.

...Keyes are great because they are there.

...Freshmen should treat juniors and seniors with RESPECT. What is a sophomore?

...Teddy Bear, I love you!

...So-and-so can drive.(?)

...P.P. knows where to take you on a Friday night. (SHOCK)

..."James" brings the car with "Clouds in his Coffee."

...Members of the Mob will remember the SAVANE.

...That black hat is real GROOVY!!!

...Team six is not number one.

...I give my apologies, Westmont, but a personal tragedy kept me away. I don't know what happened to Cathy, but I've been back for two weeks. I am glad you were concerned!

IS THERE SPIRIT?

Is there spirit in high schools any more? "I don't know," and "Who cares." were some of the answers I got when I asked various kids from other schools. I say, "Yes!."

"Campbell, Del Mar and Leigh seem to have the best spirit around." Hurrah for us and congrats to Campbell and Leigh.

Students from Blackford, Branham and Prospect along with students from the three spirited schools tend to agree with this statement.

I personally enjoy playing either Leigh or Campbell because there always seems to be so much rivalry. Proof was the Dons' first game against Leigh in basketball played at Leigh. People were packed in the gym like sardines in a can, and everyone was yelling! Those kind of games are fun! They just put you in a spirited mood.

This year's Campbell game was not a good example of Del Mar/Campbell rivalry as it has been in the past. But I think the rainy weather and the fact that it was an after school game kept a lot of people away. Anyone who went to last year's championship basketball game for first place between Del Mar and Campbell would have seen an example of great spirit and a great game. I feel that if we play Campbell once again at a night game, the old rivalry will be back.

I don't know the opinions from Camden, Westmont or Saratoga students, so if you don't mind saying (HONESTLY) who has the most spirit, please do! My curiosity is killing me!!!

HAPPY GROUND HOG DAY!!!

Meeting time is 7:30 p.m.

Anthropology offered here

Why does man behave as he does? Are we naturally aggressive, or do we learn this? Is war inevitable?

These questions will be explored in an adult school class at Del Mar High School. The class will meet Thursdays from 7 to 10 p.m.

Anthropology F-010 is an introductory physical anthropology course for the interested layman, according to instructor Larry Flammer.

For registration information contact the high school at 298-0260.

efforts to get the CofC active in the promoting of a motel in town.

Hammer explained that Fabbri, the incoming president, had been affectionately called "the godfather" and, in keeping with that, a large photograph was unveiled. An enlarged head shot of Fabbri had replaced that of the movie actor who plays the "godfather" in the film of the same name.

AMBASSADOR

Other awards presented included that of the "ambassador-of-the-year" for the Chamber of Commerce member getting the most members during the year. Hammer was the winner of this award with a record of 67 new members totalling $1095 in dues. President Fabbri made the presentation and reported that 67 new members had joined the CofC during the year with membership dues totalling $3280.

In the ambassador derby, Hammer barely topped Al La Plante, winner for five out of the six previous years, and Betty Borden;

Mrs. Jeanette Watson, chairman of the Civic Improvement Commission, and a previous citizen-of-the-year winner presented special awards to Floyd Little, for his beautification efforts by his famed mini-park, Irma Reese, for her senior citizen activities and Edith Morley, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, for her efforts in park development.

Vice-Mayor Dean Chamberlin, a former mayor, presented Mayor Podgorsek with the mayor's award and Betty Borden received special recognition as chairman of the installation dinner which, it was reported, was the largest ever with 185 in attendance.

INSTALLATION

The directors and officers of the Chamber of Commerce were installed by the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, a former director of the Chamber and also a citizen-of-the-year winner in 1969.

As the directors were called forward for the installation ceremony, the lights were dimmed and enlarged slides of the directors at their places of business, were flashed on the wall.

Master-of-ceremonies for the annual affair was Fred LaCosse, news director of Channel 11.

New officers of the CofC include, Fabbri, president; Al Blaine, first vice-president; John Copper, second vice-president; Phil Olavarri, treasurer and La Plante, past president.

Incoming directors are, Betty Borden, Jim Bower, Jim D'Avis, Jim Hardy, Sally Howe, Homer Hyde, Norman Johnson, Dan Knowles.

Carry-over directors are, Blaine, Father Leonard W. Bose, Copper, Gordon Craig, Fabbri, Olavarri, Bob Peck, Jack Reilly.

Cambrian district trustee will not seek reelection

Mrs. Virginia Grewohl, at the last meeting of the Cambrian School District trustees held in the Bohnett School's cafetorium, announced that she would not seek reelection for a seat on the board. Mrs. Grewohl will finish her second term on the board on June 30 this year.

Three of the five seats are up for election in April. Information and forms for filing for election to the governing board may be obtained at the Registrar of Voters Office or the District Office. Deadline for filing is 5 p.m. Friday, February 16. Election is Tuesday, April 17.

At the trustees' meeting Ted Jones, principal of the Metzler School, gave a report on Operation: SHARE, a volunteer tutorial program funded by the state. College students volunteer to tutor elementary students, two to four hours per week. The purpose is to seek academic improvement. SHARE is funded by the State of California.

COUNTY GETS FUNDS FOR ADDICTS CARE

The State Health and Welfare Agency and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare have signed a contract which will provide funding for family-style-live-in facilities for up to 40 drug addicts in Santa Clara County in 1973, according to County Drug Abuse Program Coordinator Robert Garner.

The maximum amount available for 1973 will be $159,140, said Garner, and two existing residential drug abuse programs.

Westmont Open Mouth

PAUL & MS. MAUREEN
(Macierz) (Hillyard)

Ms.: Good heavens! What is it?

S.H.: (the name is changed to protect the innocent) It came in the mail addressed to you and Paul.

Ms.: Look at all the stamps! What could be in a 6'x 4'x3' crate anyway! And why give it to us?

S.H.: Open it!

Ms.: Ohmygod!

Sybil: Yes, friends, it is I...returning to the bleak civilization of man, and the hub-ub of Campbell.

Ms.: What are you doing here?

S.H.: I don't know, but she came postage due.

MASS KNOWLEDGE

There are 45 people walking around the halls of Westmont with brains throbbing within their heads, and the intelligence to get all A's last quarter, so we'll be watching them again after Thursday.

Seniors: Jan Beckenbaur, Connie Boren, Jill Bowen, Elizabeth Burkhouse, Mary Burkhouse, Cheryl Cimburek, Lynn Ellis, Deborah Gehman, Susan Grubb, Pam Heinen, Angie Heldt, Jean Huelman, Louise Johnson, Linda Larraux, Linda Lucas, Elaine Marchesi, Sandra Martin, Gary Massingill, Carl Nadler, Rick Pope, Anna Rehbock, Pat Rossler, Linda Smith, Charlene Vernon.

Sybil: Well, I saw you wanted some fan letters, so I decided that instead I'd send you a fan person.

Ms.: Why'd you do that?

Sybil: To make you two feel better. Who'd write YOU a letter?

Ms.: Well! It just so happens that we got not one, but two!

FAN LETTERS

On January 12 we received a very generous and beautiful letter from Alan Carmain. Alan now attends West Valley and used to write the Camden High School column (are you listening, Mike Lindsay?). It was really a terrific letter, and Alan compared his old column to ours, and was able to conclude that he's a chauvanist pig, and that the white dove we asked for was injured during the recent bombings.

Now all he has to do is correct the first fault of being an oppressor, and help us heal the dove. And Alan, don't thank us for writing the column, thank you for your letter and for reading the column.

And thank you everyone else for reading it.

The second letter I depict as a conspiracy. The letter guessed that Paul was tall and cute, and Maureen was sexy.

The accused is my colleague. He's the only person in the world who see's himself as tall, and could type the letter so terribly. Besides, it was signed FAN. If it wasn't him, then it was Sandy Mann, who now gets an "F" out of summer biology for guessing Ms. as sexy since she knows her.

Sybil: Say, where is the yo-yo you write this with anyway?

Ms.: He's gone to Redwood Glen again.

Sybil: Everytime I come back he's not here. I don't understand it... I take a bath every week.

SOUNDS OF MUSIC

This Saturday, January 27, a few Westmont students will be going to Stockton.

Twenty-five members of the choir and orchestra will be participating in a clinic at University of Pacific for the day, where they will rehearse with guest conductors.

U.O.P. has this clinic every year, and for the students it is a great opportunity.

Ms.: So how were the Himalayans, Sybil? Did you stare at your navel?

Sybil: I'm staring at you blankly Maureen. Do you see that? No one stares at their navel anymore.

Ms.: I do.

Sybil: Like I said, no one stares at their navel anymore.

Ms.: God will get you for that

SOUNDER

Once again the Peninsula Adult/Youth Film Council has allowed we fledgling journalists and weathered movie buffs the opportunity to view another recent movie, "Sounder."

The movie stars Cicely Tyson and Paul Winfield, in the heart-warming story of a share cropper family in Louisiana, 1933, and their dog, Sounder.

The movie is filled with love and reality. The film has a deep and genuine warmth, but it doesn't sugar-coat the truth of the situation for the characters in the day and style they lived in. "Sounder" is rated G, and deservedly so. A wonderful family picture.

Sybil: Maureen, you should see the Himalayans. They're so stately and homely.

Ms.: What were you doing there?

Sybil: I've been meditating with a rock group and guru respectively, and have come up with a new philosophy on life.

UPCOMING EVENTS, NEWS, & GOSSIP

Another Westmont first is forthcoming. This Friday is the semester break, and everyone gets a day off to celebrate the halfway mark.

It is obvious that SANDY MANN knows her place in the high school column circuit as evidenced last week by her admittance to belonging in Agnew, and having to contend with us. Yet, one can't compare her to Clifford Irving--'cause although she's a hard-hitting journalist, she tells the truth, takes the consequences, and goes on.

Tomorrow is the Rock Concert! Grab your tickets, your tennis shoes, and go! Door opens at 7:30, music starts at 8:00 with Elvin Bishop and Jasper.

Warrior hoopsters were at press time undefeated having downed the Camden Cougars 64-to-43, and the Saratoga Falcons 55-to-47.

Westmont's first student-faculty variety show sponsored by the Thespians and drama classes, will be presented on February 8 from 7:30 to 9:30.

The Open Mouth applauds the Rolling Stones for holding in L.A. a charity concert for the earthquake victims of Managua. Far-out.

Sybil: Say, this is the second time you've had to write the column without that clown. You know what you should do?

Ms.: What?

Sybil: Write the column with Sandy Mann!

Ms.: Sandy Mann goes to Campbell.

Sybil: You should give him a punch in the nose.

Ms.: No...he'd only hit me back. I'll give him something else.

Sybil: What?

EGO CORNER

This week, Ego Corner is wonked onto Paul Macierz. Not because he deserves it, but because he absolutely drives me crackers trying to write a column with him; but I wouldn't do it without him.

Sybil: Why wouldn't you write it without him? You could write it with me!

Ms.: Because, Sybil, I couldn't bear to work with someone who doesn't even stare at their navel.

Kennel Club announces dog show

Sunday, February 18, has been set as the date for the annual All-Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trial at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds. This "biggest one-day unbenched purebred dog show" in the country is staged by the Santa Clara Valley Kennel Club.

Charles Atlas, president of the club, is decorating the fairground's buildings in a Scottish theme this year.

Martha Baechle, show chairman, announced a 'bonus' the day before the big show (February 17) in the showing of certain breeds in specialty shows.

These will include English Setters, Gordon Setters, Irish Setters, Boxers, Pomeranians, and Cairn Terriers.

Entries close for these Specialties on Saturday, January 27, and information may be obtained from the SCVKC Secretary, 7810 Lunar Ct., Cupertino, Calif.

Sirens screech on Friday

Sirens from Palo Alto to Gilroy will sound off promptly at 11 a.m., Friday, January 26, as the County Office of Emergency Services conducts a test of the disaster warning devices.

Other sirens in San Mateo County will shatter the morning quiet of their communities at the same time.

The 123 sirens will begin with a one minute steady blast followed by one minute of silence and then conclude with one minute of the wailing siren.

The quarterly test is part of the continuing effort by emergency services units of the County to keep their equipment in readiness in the event of a major disaster.

The sirens, in event of an actual emergency situation,, would be sounded for three to five minutes. The steady blast denoting an alert and the wailing siren or series of short blasts would signify an attack warning.

Flooding waters leave Homer without a home

Homer is without his home today following last week's rainstorms which caused heavy damage along San Tomas Creek in the west Campbell area.

He is a basset hound who shares his home with Carey and Pam Zicovich, 4024 Twyla Lane, and their five-year-old daughter Shelly.

When flooding waters rose in the creek last week Homer was in his metal doghouse in the Zicovich's backyard. His house, anchored in cement, stood mid-way in the backyard of the Twyla Lane home. Tuesday morning, January 16, it stood at the edge of the creek. The swirling waters had swept away the back fence, about 15 feet of the yard, along with the patio and new plants purchased just this past year by the family.

Many homes along the flood-widened banks of the creek have suffered heavy damage.

Fences have been washed away and, at one home, the large backyard swimming pool hangs over the creek's edge.

When rains again hit the area on Thursday, Homer's house was gone.

NO TRESPASSING !

HAPLESS HOMER---Mr. and Mrs. Carey Zicovich, 4024 Twyla Lane, pose with their basset hound "Homer." When San Tomas Aquino Creek began to erode property along the creek banks, Homer was in his doghouse in the path of the rising waters. Zicovich estimates he lost about 15 feet of his backyard area during Tuesday's flooding.
